The 8th International Conference on Four Constitution Medicine*

The 8th international conference on four constitution medicine will be held by The Society of SaSang Constitutional Medicine from July 18 to 22, 2009, in Tokyo, Japan. The purposes of the conference are to make SaSang constitutional medicine, which is not familiar compared with the research on Shang Han Lun, public and to exchange information with many of doctors applying oriental medicine in clinical practice. It is an excellent opportunity to circulate the superiority of SaSang constitutional medicine by reviewing the relationship between custom-made medicine and SaSang constitutional medicine. At the same time, the conference will offer an opportunity to understand the medical circumstances and applications of oriental medicine.

*Four Constitution Medicine is a branch of traditional Korean Medicine initiated by Dr. Lee, Je-Ma, which stresses the theory of the four constitutions, physiology, pathology, diagnosis, and maintenance of health, and is also called SaSang constitutional medicine.
